4.2 Riverside County Animal Control: Leash Law--dogs impounded if no leash on streets. Dogs must have rabies immunization and microchip.

4.3 MAC vacancy: Please apply if you are interested. Tania Garcia is our new Secretary

5.0 Public Comments:

- Elsa Fitzgerald: Valentines Ball is a senior lunches fundraiser. Please help us to generate funds for this program. Smooth Transitions will cater.

- Yolanda Williams: Keying vehicles during lunch hour; population signs (Cajalco Rd. and Old Elsinore); update on senior meals (excellent Thanksgiving, seniors enjoyed meals); illegal food vendors (County needs to give them somewhere to sell)
- Lincoln Cooper: Christmas Dinner had an attendance of about 1100 people. Toys were given. It was great. We care about our community. Contact us if you need shelter.
- Pepe Del Rio: Pepe gave job advice to a homeless individual. Asked Salter Rd. people to work together.

6.0 Report from Supervisor Kevin Jeffries' Office:

6.1 Thomas Ketcham, Legislative Analyst to Supervisor Kevin Jeffries

- Low turnout for Senior lunch
- Charles G. Meigs name on building now
- Breakfast with Santa: MAC board helped. There were a lot of volunteers. Thank you to all who helped out
- Lincoln Cooper: Between 1100 and 1400 meals were served at Christmas dinner & 800 toys given out
- Call for any water hazards/flooding issues
- Food vendors: They need a permit. Vendors refuse to comply due to lack of code enforcement availability.
- Population signs: we are working on those
- MAC board: applications available for vacant spot if you are interested
- Yolanda Williams: No more lotto's for turkey give-a-ways. Yolanda is head of volunteer committee.
- Tom Ketcham: Turkeys are distributed all over District#1, not just to a certain community or organization. It is all non-profit. Lincoln has also given turkeys.

7.0 Mead Valley MAC Board Member Comments:
